BENJAMIN L. LAWLEY

Benjamin L. Lawley was born in Bibb County, Alabama on 17 November 1876. He was the son of Michael Z. Lawley and his first wife Martha Hicks Lawley. Benjamin L. Lawley married first Myrtle Virginia Lawley in Bibb County, Alabama on 24 December 1902. Myrtle Lawley was born in Bibb County, Alabama on 16 September 1880. She was the youngest child of Marion Francis Lawley and his wife Arena Whatley Lawley who were from Shelby County, Alabama.

Sometime between 1915 and 1920 Benjamin Lawley moved his family from Bibb County, Alabama to Mobile County, Alabama. His brother Newton Lawley had moved to Mobile County earlier and Benjamin decided to follow him south. Benjamin's family first settled in the Chunchula and Turnerville communities before moving to the Tanner-Williams community in the mid-1920's. Benjamin's father Michael Lawley and his second wife Loucinda Hicks Sandford Lawley also moved to Mobile County. Michael Lawley had fought in the Civil War in Company F of the 44th Alabama Infantry. Not long after Ben Lawley settled in Tanner-Williams his first wife Myrtle Lawley died on 18 August 1927. She was buried at Palestine Church Cemetery. Ben's father Michael Lawley died 15 April 1929 and was buried at the Turnerville Cemetery in Mobile County.

Benjamin Lawley married as his second wife Mrs. Mittie Cain. She had one daughter Phyllis. Ben and his second wife Mittie lived out their later years running boarding houses on Conti Street and North Carolina Street in Mobile. Benjamin died 26 October 1959 and was buried next to his first wife Myrtle Lawley in the Palestine Cemetery. His second wife Mittie Lawley is buried in Springhill Cemetery in Mobile.

Benjamin L. and Myrtle Lawley had the following eight children: Mayme Louise born 28 February 1904 in Bibb County, Alabama. She married John Allen Byrd and had two daughter's Virginia and Margaret. Mayme died 18 June 1983 and is buried in Mobile.
